As the days pass slowly away, the Class of '51 looks back on its three-year high school record with satisfaction and pride.

In our sophomore year we were headed by Ray Brown, President; Jim Crow, Vice-President; Joanne Culver, Secretary; Sherman Knight, Treasurer; Pat Rodman, Social Chairman. We were fairly active in sports as Sherman Knight and George Nickoloff lettered in football.

In our junior year the officers were Ted Cummings, President; Homer Baldwin, Vice-President; Shirley Fowler, Secretary; Bill Schroeder, Treasurer; Marlane Hughey, Social Chairman.

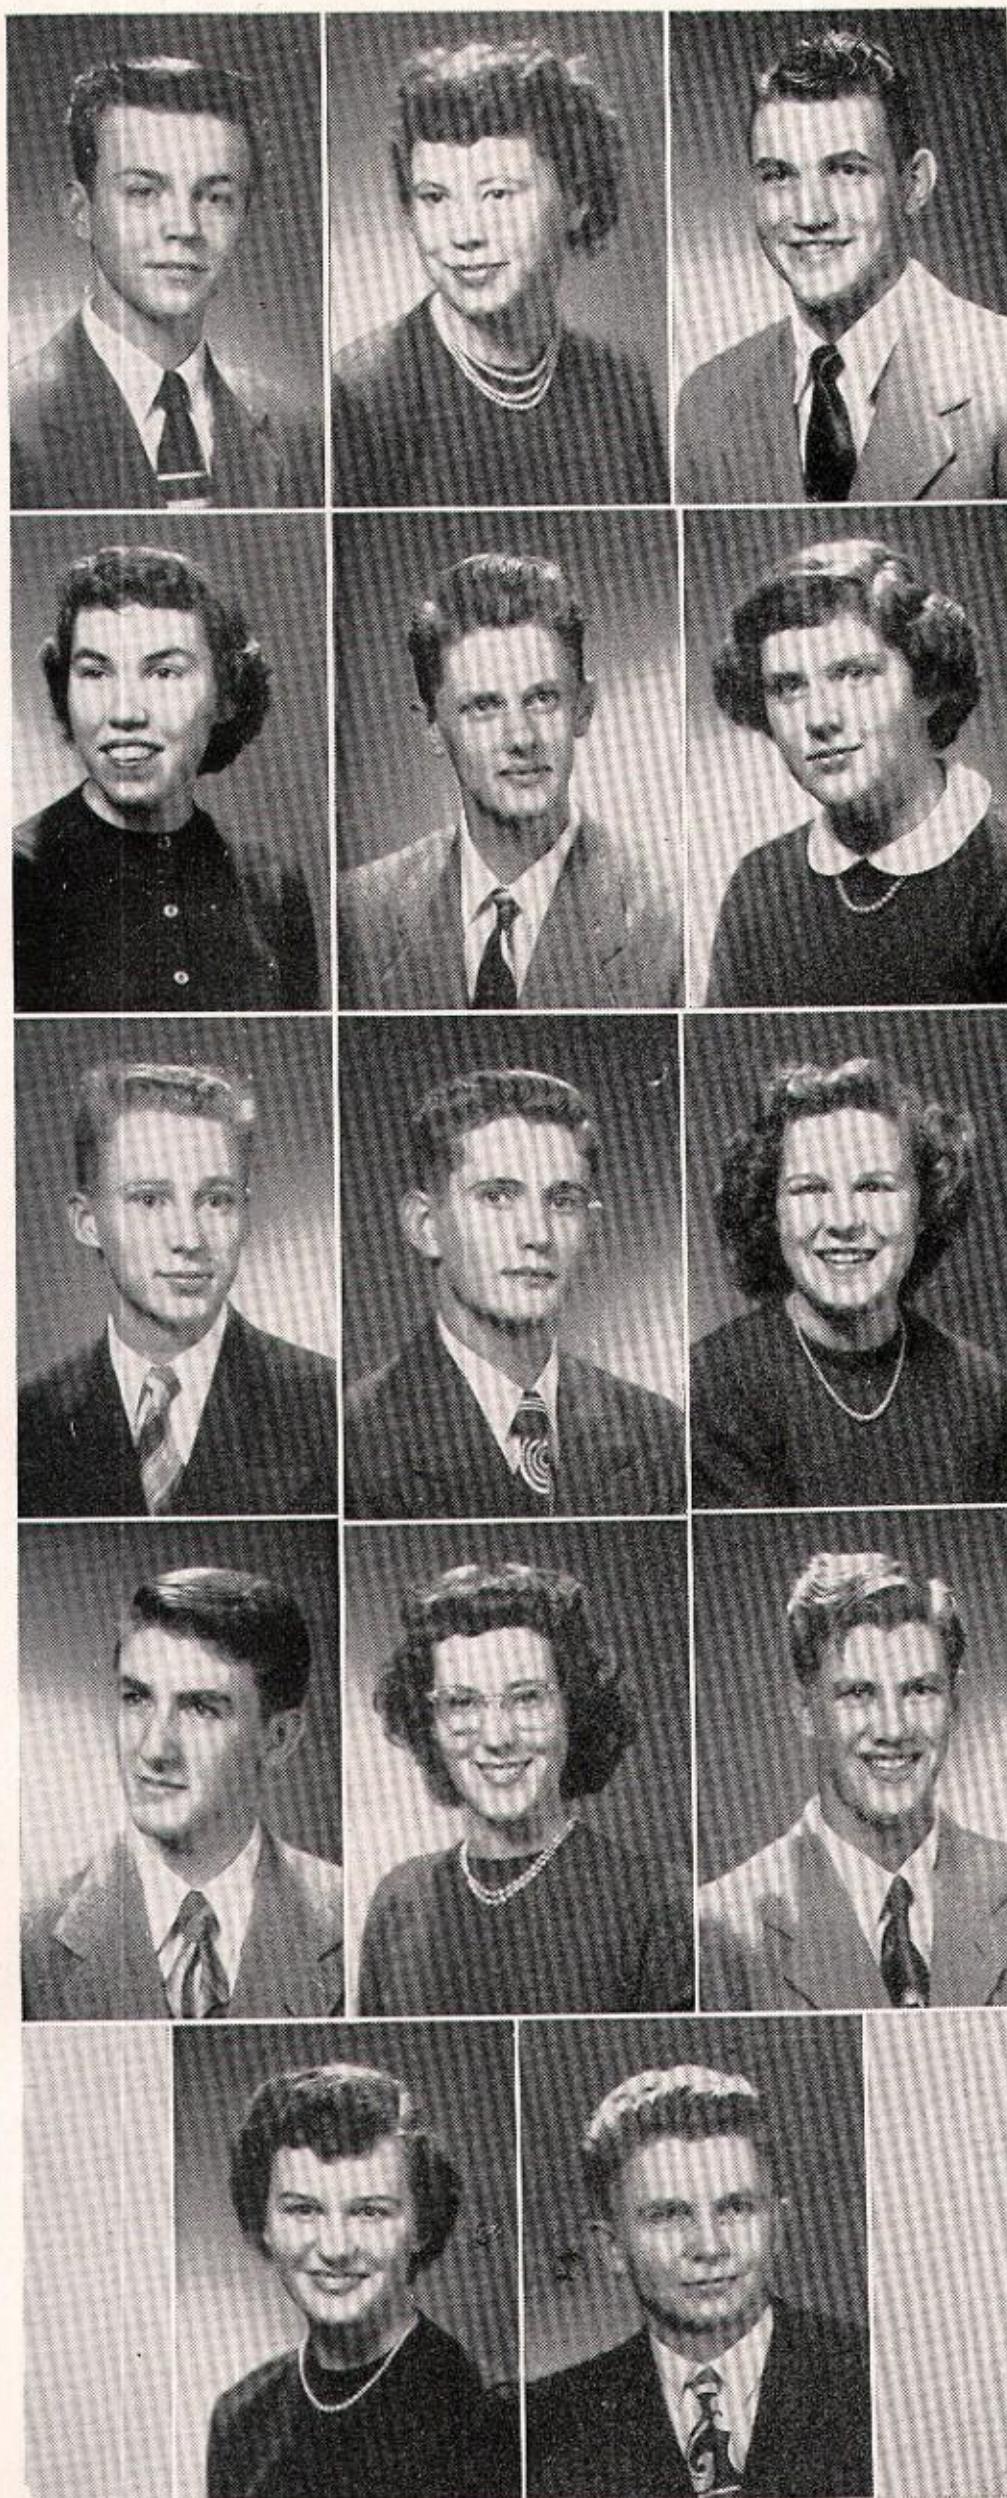

As juniors we were active in almost everything around our Alma Mater. The outstanding event was the Junior Prom where Kay Geffe reigned as Queen with Carole King, Bernadine O'Shea, Shirlene Sartin, and Pat Rodman as her princess. We were also active in sports and other activities.

As our last year of high school passes before our eyes, we find that the seniors have their hands in all the activities. The class is headed by Ed Brandt, President; Joanne Culver, Vice-President; Delmar Stover, Secretary; Stan Hosman, Treasurer; Bernadine O'Shea, Social Chairman.

Senior members who are presidents of other organizations are George Griffith, A. S. B.; Sherman Knight, Boys' Club; Kay Geffe, Girls' Club; George Nicholoff, Red Devils and F. F. A.; Erma Rae Crosier, Pep Club; Virginia Campbell, G. A. C.; and Bob Russ, Lettermen's Club.

Herbert Henley was Valedictorian, and Ed Brandt and Jim Crow were Salutatorians.

Yes, we can say our class was very successful in high school. As we go on our own way in life, we will never forget our Alma Mater, "Ole Wa Hi."

The juniors of 1951 have just completed a successful year. Our class participated in the activities held during the year with a great deal of enthusiasm.

Some of the girls were members of Pep Club, and several of the boys belonged to the Red Devils and the Lettermen's club. G. A. C. was also popular for the girls.

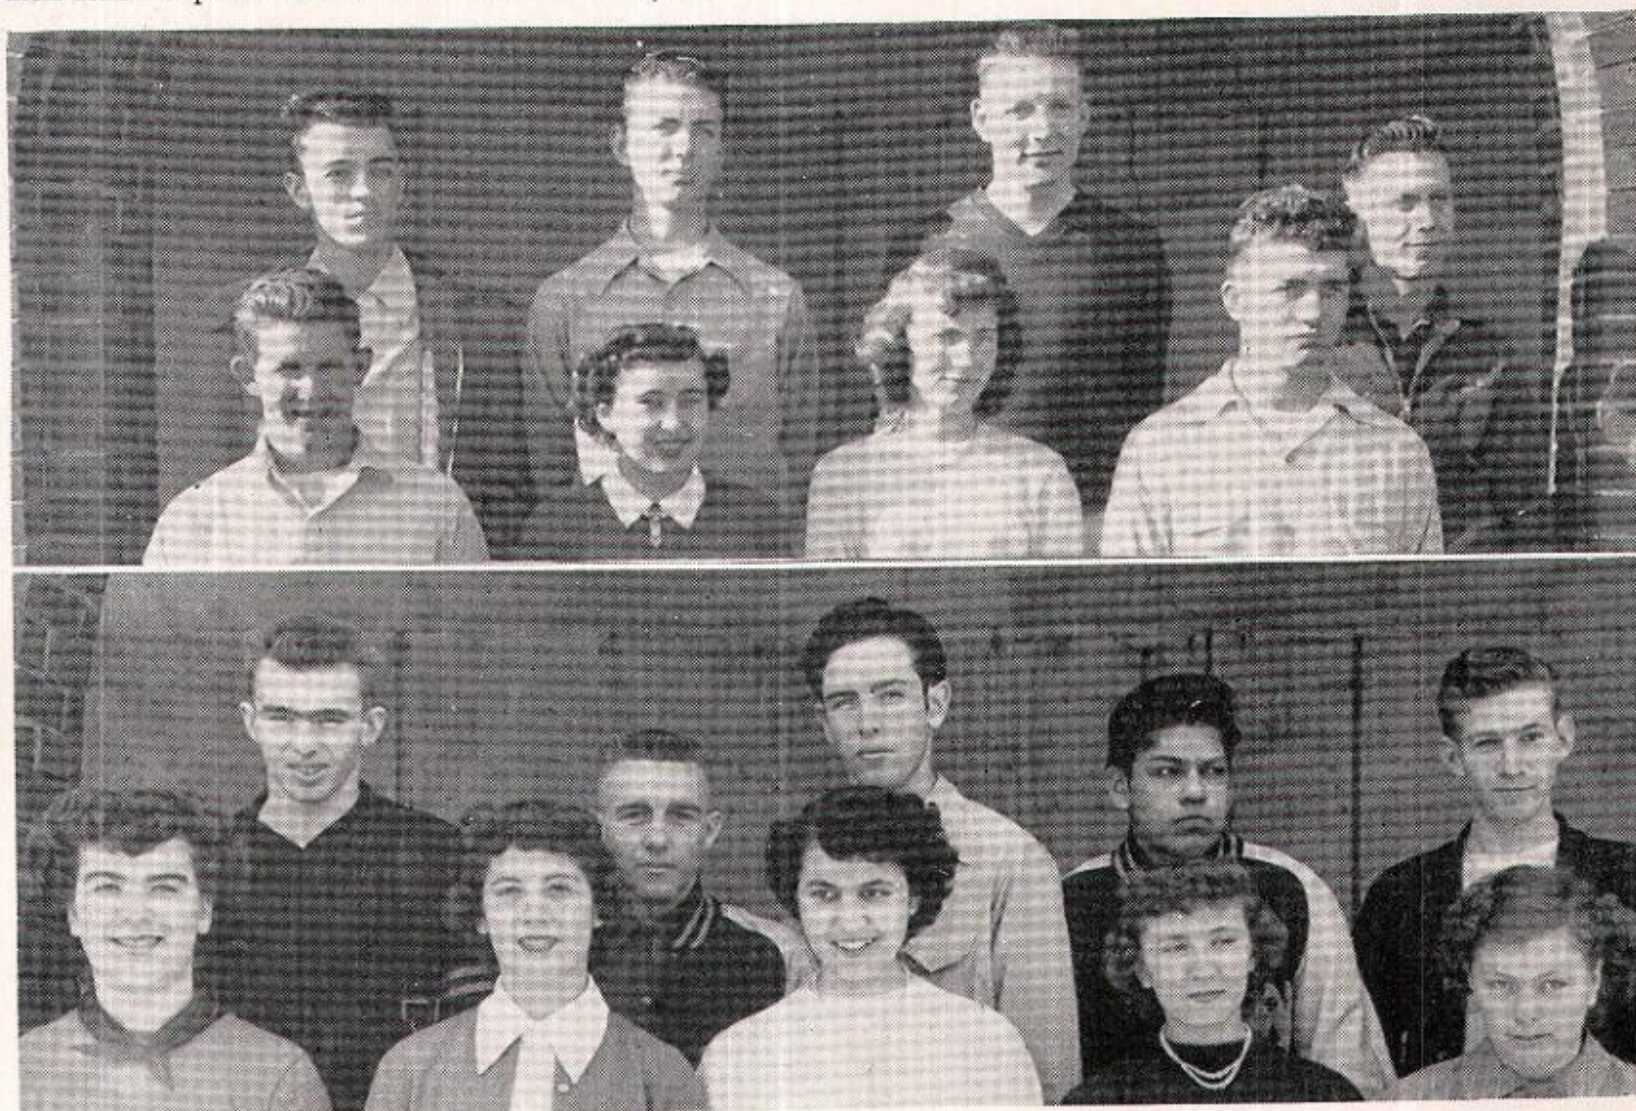

The junior boys helped lead the teams to successful football and basketball seasons as well as joining in the spring sports.

Our class party was held in February. Dancing and games were the chief entertainment.

"Our Hearts Were Young and Gay" was the student body play in which several of our class participated.

The Junior Prom was the highlight of the year. It was held on May 4.

We want to thank our advisers, Mr. Whitley, Miss Mesick, and Mr. Snodgrass; and our counselor, Miss Reed, for their leadership and contribution to a successful year.

A nine-year ambition was finally realized when we were able to take part in the high school activities, such as the dances, parties, assemblies, and plays that were successfully sponsored by the different classes.

Shortly after school started on September 5, the sophomores were grateful for the Sophomore Mixer that was given in their honor, for at it we became acquainted with the older students; it made us feel that we were accepted into high school.

From our class, this year hailed a few outstanding sportsmen. Jerry Perrotti won the unusual distinction for a sophomore of being on the all-state football team. We also had Don Myers, who skipped from the B-Squad in the middle of the season to play on the first five in the A-Squad basketball team. As all classes we hope that our boys prove to be steady, willing athletes who will give everything they have to their high school sports.

The girls were active in G. A. C. this year. In the play-off for the all-star team, the winning team was headed by a sophomore girl, Elsie Johnson.

We were well represented on the Board of Control this year by our class president, Don Myers. Our guidance committee, which was headed by Birdie Burgess, brought to us some very interesting talks by different people around town, telling us the advantages and disadvantages of their occupations.

Jeanine Early, Janet Mitchell, Janet Dunn, and Virginia Bale appeared in the student body play.

On December 23, our social chairman, Beatrice O'Shea, had our class assembly ready to begin. It was a joyous event when Santa Claus, portrayed by Blaine Hardy, came out in full glory and took us into his workshop to see his toys at play. At the end, as we left, Santa opened up his bag and gave us candy as we went through the doors to start a week's vacation.

On Friday, April 13, the theme of Black Magic was used for our sophomore party. At the party many superstitious students had to be careful for most of the superstitions of the past were brought out and used for decorations. Music at the party was furnished by trusty Old-Man Juke Box and his Merry Records.

To Mr. Neilson, Mr. Chissus, Mrs. Moore, Mr. Bunnell, our advisers; and Miss Tenney, our counselor, go many thanks, for without their help throughout the year it would not have been a successful one.

Our sophomore year will be remembered by all. During this year we have grown in understanding and knowledge. Some day we will be grateful for the enthusiastic leadership and the willingness of our advisers who gave of their time to promote us in that understanding and knowledge, for what we do now will help to make us stronger and more useful citizens of the future. "Hail to thee our Alma Mater," for therein lies our happiest years.

The senior play, "Mother Is a Freshman" was presented November 16 and 18.

The play begins in the living-room of Abigail Abbott's home where Abigail and Susan are discussing Susan's plans for college. Abigail has decided to attend college with Susan, her daughter, and nothing Susan can say or do will change Abigail's mind.

The rest of the play takes place in the Green Hall Girl's Dormitory. Here we meet a few of the college students including Bobo Jackson, the campus big shot. We also meet Dean Gillingham and Professor Michaels.

Susan believes she is in love with Professor Michaels, and Bobo is trying to win her love with no success. Abigail finds herself in love with Professor Michaels but does not want to hurt Susan. Professor Michaels thinks of Susan as a child and falls in love with Abigail. Bobo then gives a big play for Abigail but finds he can not make Susan jealous that way. The play ends with Bobo and Susan together at long last, and Susan also has a new stepfather, Professor Michaels.

The Wapato associated student body presented its annual play on March 30 and 31. Written by Cornelia Skinner and Emily Kimbrough, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay" is the story of Cornelia and Emily as they venture alone, on their first voyage, from America to Paris.

While on board the ship, the steward, who is continually hauling in the girls' trunks, is aggravated by Emily's continual fear of the ship's hitting an iceberg. The two girls meet two American boys, Leo McEvoy and Dick Winters, with whom they become well acquainted.

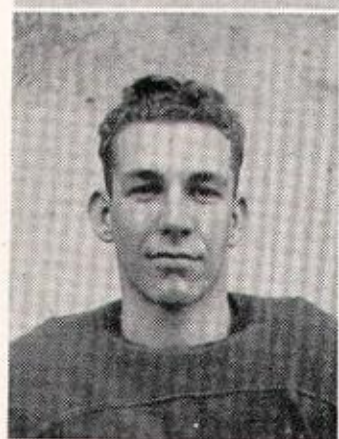

Just before the boat docks, Cornelia catches the measles, and Dick and Leo get her past the health inspector with her face whitened with powder to cover the red spots.

In Paris, Cornelia arranges to take acting lessons from Monsieur de la Croix, a French actor, but he is interested only in meeting her father, Otis Skinner, an American actor; and, when Otis walks out on him after a very cool reception, he tells Cornelia she has no talent whatsoever for acting. She bewails this fact, but her father assures her she has possibilities doing monologues in the American theatre. So Emily and Cornelia sail for home with fond memories of Paris and their French vacation.

Under the fine direction of Coaches Chissus, Currie, and Rants, Wapato had a very successful football season. After being picked by the experts to finish far down the line, the Wolves came out undisputed champion of the northern division and tied Grandview in a play-off game for the valley championship. With seven returning lettermen and a great amount of help from the sophomores and the boys up from last years "B" squad, Wapato emerged as the lightest but fastest team in the valley.

The season closed with two boys, Jim Bauer and Jerry Perrotti, landing on the All-Valley first eleven. George Nickoloff and Jerry Tilton were named on the second team while Sherman Knight and Hershel Andrews received honorable mention.

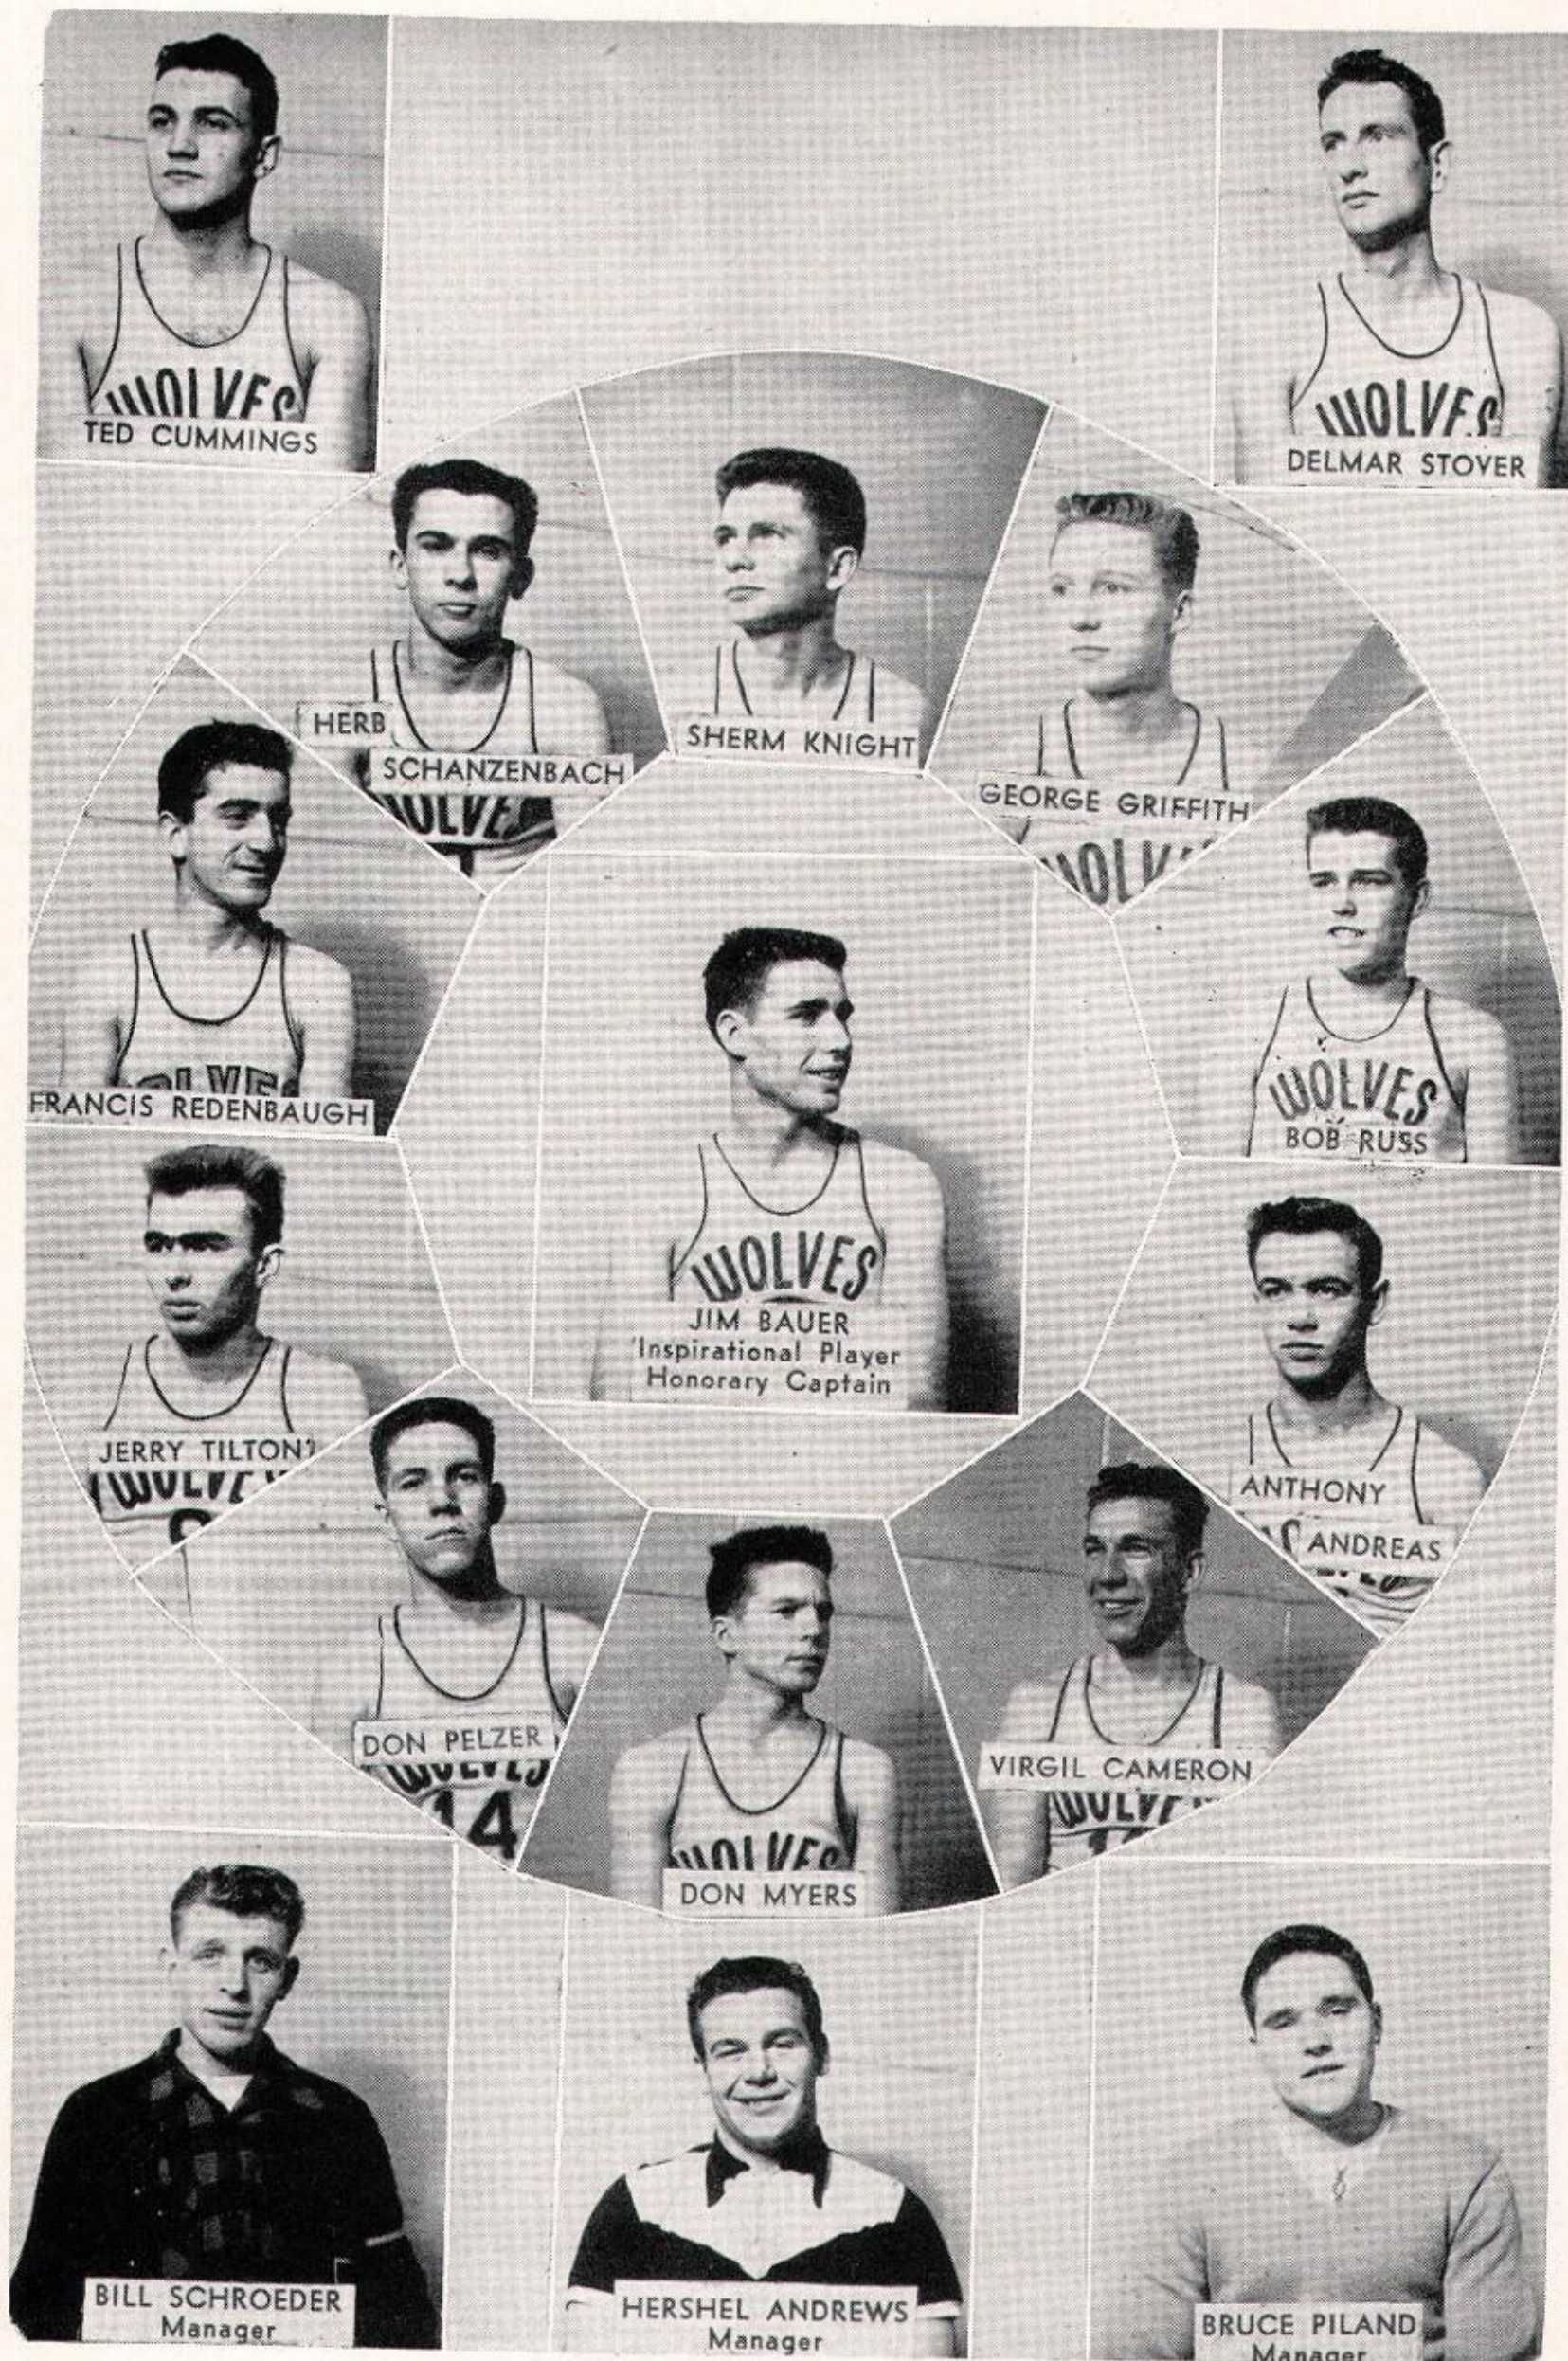

At the end of the season George Nickoloff was voted the honorary captain and inspirational player.

Basketball

Winning the basketball jamboree started the Wolves on their pre-season campaign with four wins and two losses.

The Wolves went into the tournament with high spirits; they won their first game from Ellensburg, but because of poor shooting lost their next two games to Yakima and Pasco.

Seven seniors, five juniors, and one sophomore composed the team of the 1950-1951 season. Ted Cummings, Sherman Knight, Herbert Schanzenbach, Delmar Stover, Bob Russ, George Griffith, and Francis Redenbaugh played their last year of varsity basketball for Wapato.

Jim Bauer set a new Northern Division scoring record. His record was 215 points in fourteen games. Jim Bauer was chosen for the Northern Division all-star team, and Jerry Tilton was on the second all-star team. Jim Bauer was elected honorary captain and inspirational player by his teammates.

Congratulations go to Coach Pete Dietrich and his assistant Hanford Rants for their fine job of coaching this season.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

This year proves that we cannot take the future for granted. The only thing of which we can be sure is change. All of us know many people who are compelled to change their entire life plan through no fault of their own. Their success will depend upon their ability to adjust themselves to new situations, and this will depend upon the kind and degree of their education. Those taking the easy way will find it hard to meet all demands upon them while those able to discipline themselves through education will find themselves able to make adjustments easily, and this for them will spell success.

It will be interesting to look into this year's annual in the years to come. It will recall to our minds the various classmates, and we can measure them in accordance with their contributions. Let us hope all in the book will meet with success!

H. J. KRAMER, Superintendent

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

The current edition of the Washian provides a historical recording of our school activities and achievements during the past year. As you, in the future, look back upon the year 1950-51 you may point with pride to one of the most outstanding records in the history of our school. Of far greater importance, however, will be the record which still remains for you to establish. For, if our nation and the way of life which we have come to cherish is to prevail, it will be necessary for us to attack our future obligations with an even greater vigor and sincerity of purpose than has exemplified our efforts during the past year.

With our country and the civilized world facing the grave perils of today, it is our sincere hope that experiences gained in the school year 1950-51 may, in some measure, assist you in the greater efforts you will be called upon to make in order that this nation and the free world may be preserved.

PHILIP R. SYRDAL, Principal

Board of Education

This year, as in the past years, the school board helped to develop Wapato's youth into future citizens of this country.

The school board members give their time freely. They meet regularly to discuss and settle school problems to help the children and young people of our community.

This year they authorized the remodeling of four rooms in the junior high into a new biology room and a new home economics room.

We wish to thank the school board for helping to make our years in the senior high school enjoyable and pleasant.

Board of Control

Several meetings of the Board of Control were held prior to the opening of school to draw up a budget and begin plans for the year. Under the leadership of President George Griffith and our adviser, Mr. Syrdal, we have seen a successful year. At the first assembly the A. S. B. officers were introduced and the budget for the year was presented.

The first campaign of the year was the sale of A. S. B. tickets. Among the assemblies sponsored by the Board of Control were three national assemblies. These were "The Melodiers," "The Flying Buddies," and "The Mississippians."

A new scoreboard which can be used for either basketball or football was purchased.

December 15 was the date for the annual Christmas party. A formal ball was held, the theme of which was Snow Flakes. The gym was beautifully decorated in blue and white.

Christmas treats and a tree for the hall were arranged by the Board of Control.

With the Girls' Club, the Lettermen's banquet and dance were held on April 4. At the dance football and basketball awards were presented.

Toward the end of May the last student body assembly was held. Awards were presented to the students and the new Board of Control members were installed.

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to the student body for the cooperation which we have received, to thank Mr. Syrdal for all the help and understanding he has shown us, and to next year's Board of Control we wish luck and a very busy and successful year.

Boys' and Girls' Clubs--Officers

Early in September the Girls' Club sponsored an all-girl party. The girls enjoyed playing games and getting acquainted. "An All-Around Athlete" was the theme for the Lettermen's Banquet, held on April 4. Tolo Week took place April 16 to 20. Climaxing tag day, dress alike day, and dress-up day was the Tolo Dance. The crowning of Virgil Cameron as king with Don Pelzer, Gene Wick, Delmar Sanford, and Sadao Takayama as princes highlighted the evening.

Sandra Knight, Barbara Cowgill, Connie Nissen, and Erma Rae Crosier were delegates to Tri-State in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. In May the girls welcomed their mothers at the Mother's Day tea. Home Economics classes modeled the clothing they had made; a program was presented, and refreshments were served.

The Boys' and Girls' Clubs heard a speaker from the Civil Air Patrol on January 20, sponsored by the Boys' Club. The annual exchange assembly presented by the boys for the girls featured a dance by boys dressed as chorus girls, a jazz band called the "Swingtime Band," several instrumental and vocal solos, a tumbling clown act, and a recital of the "Hot Rod Race." On March 20, a speaker from the state game department spoke to the Boys' Club and showed a movie on how they poisoned lakes and streams to exterminate the bad fish.

The Pep Club, with Mrs. Elizabeth Moore as adviser, has been active in the services they have performed. Initia-tion of twenty-six new members was held during the Sophomore Mixer. The girls provided the entertainment at inter-mission.

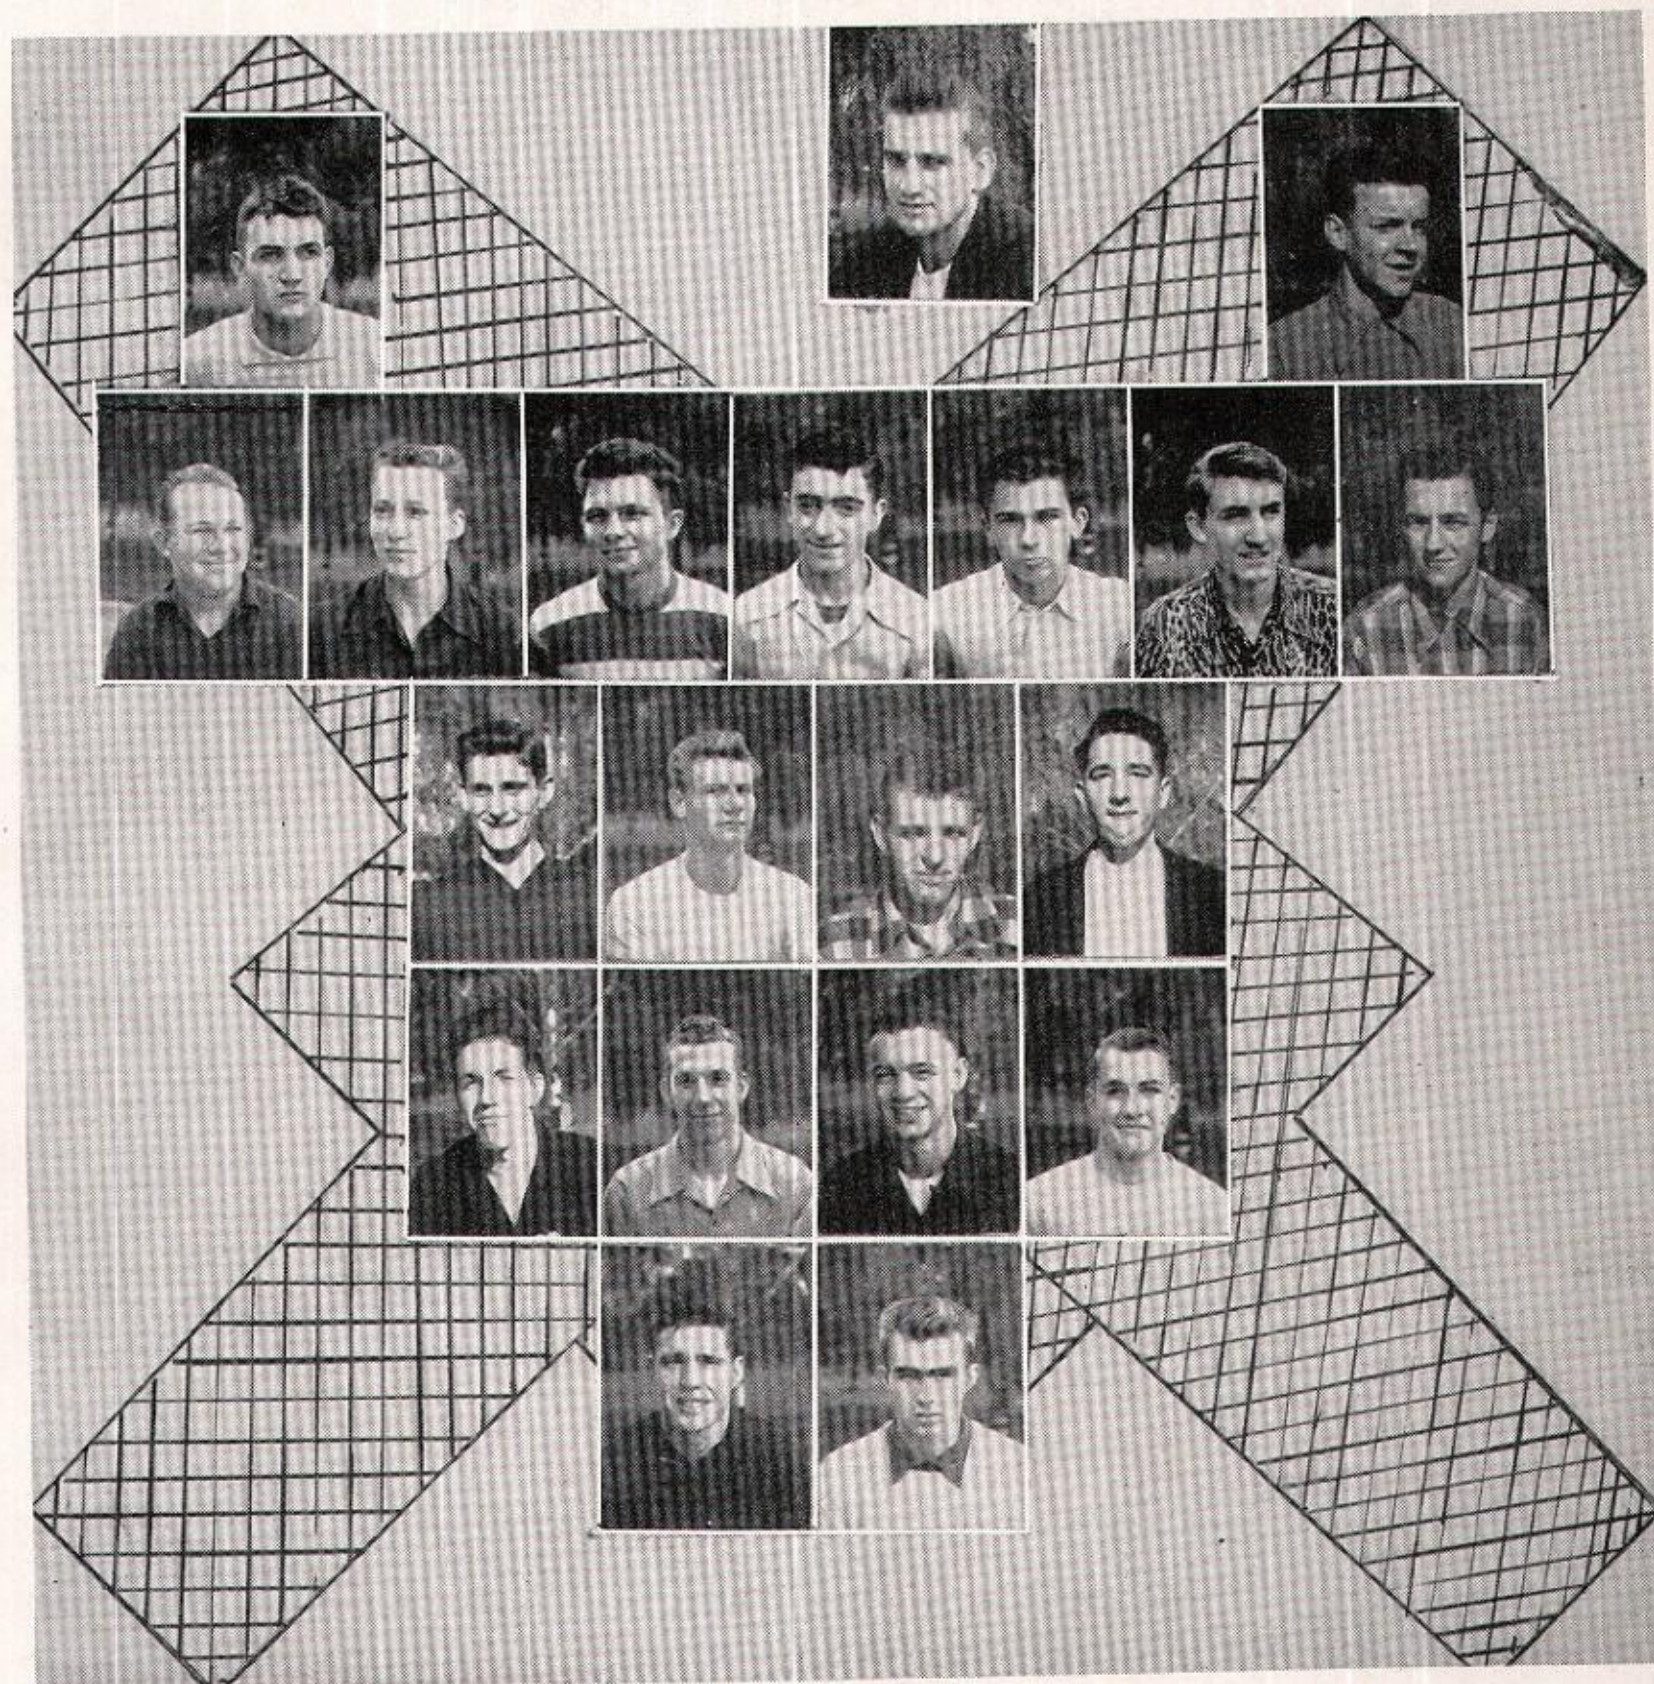

At football games the girls took tickets, and sold shakers, and apples. At the basketball games they sold hot dogs and shakers and took tickets.

Pep Club girls ushered at Christmas Vespers and the band concert.

On April 26, the Red Devils were given a banquet.

The Pep Club girls have been willing to devote their time and services to the school.

Red Devils

The Red Devils Club is a service organization consisting of twenty boys. It has a membership which rates extremely high among the students at Wapato High. It has held this enviable position throughout its entire existence in the school, and it has always been the ambition of every boy to one day become a member of this live organization.

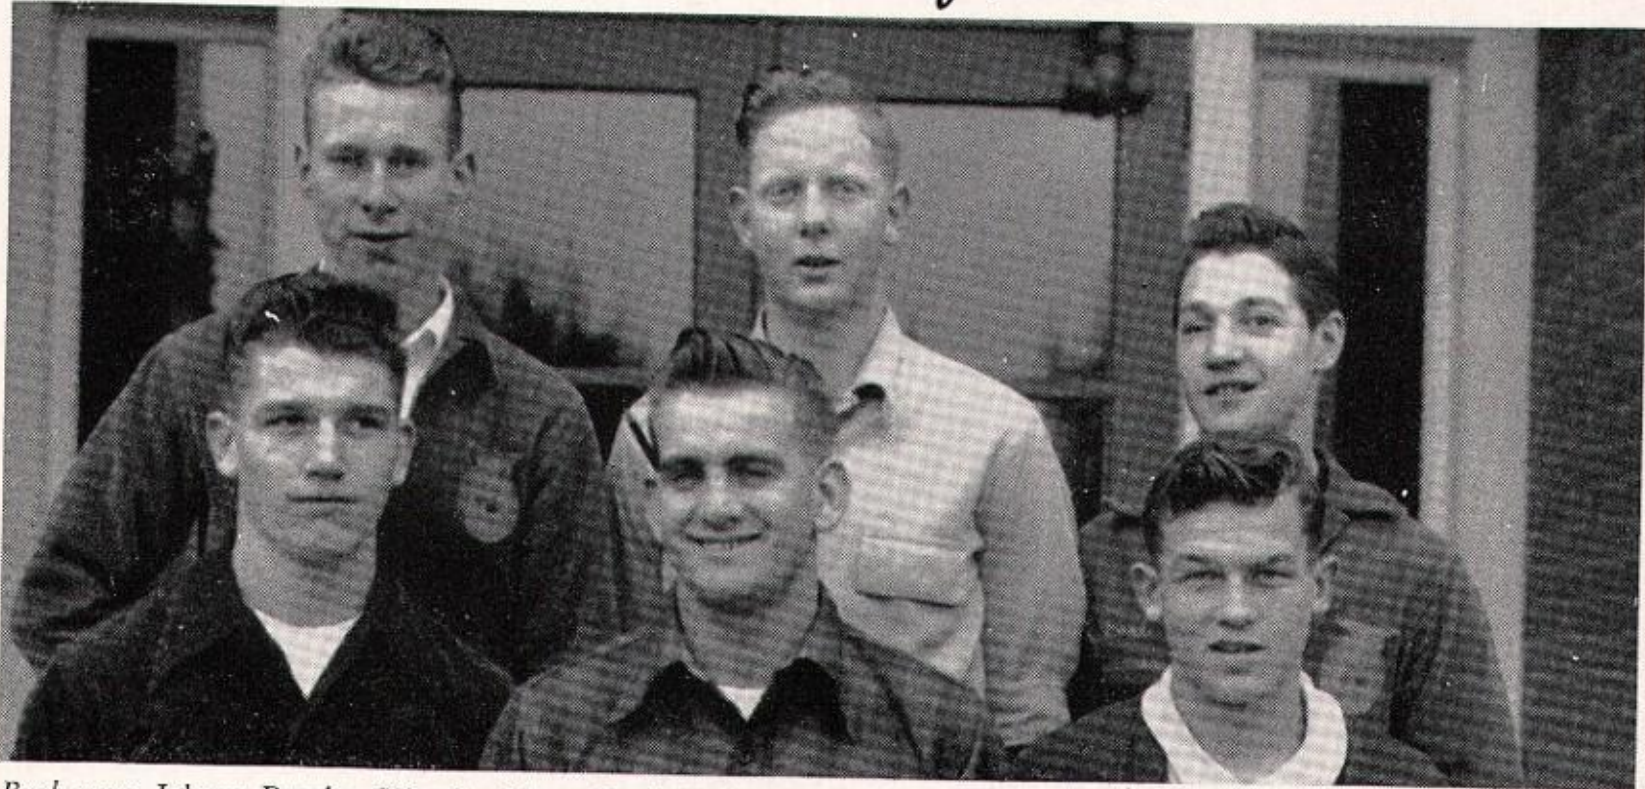

To gain membership in this club, one must first be voted on by all the present members. The organization makes up a list of boys who will make good members. Then they vote on them, picking twelve from the sophomore class and sixteen from the junior class. The student body then vote on them during the spring elections. The new members are then reduced to eight from the junior class and six from the sophomore class.

The Red Devils Club has been a symbol of authority for twenty-one years. The club was organized by a group of boys in 1930.

The duty of this organization is to patrol at games, to maintain order in the halls, and to assist in fire drills.

With the help of their adviser, Mr. Chissus, the Red Devils had a successful year.

Future Farmers of America

The Wapato Chapter of the Future Farmers of America under the supervision of their advisers, Mr. Hardy and Mr. Doornink, have completed an educational and profitable year.

The year started with the initiation of thirty-five green hand members and twenty-six Chapter Farmers. The F. F. A. also had a float in the Labor Day parade which placed second in the agriculture division.

The officers provided much of the drive needed to put many of the successful projects over. Some of these were the public speaking contest held at Selah in which Carmon Hardy placed first and Earl Rowley second. The Ag Bowl was another successful undertaking. Carol Strothers was queen.

The members of the F. F. A. also did very well at the Central Washington Fair. Members took the first four places in the fitting and showing of swine. The beef and sheep divisions also provided many prizes for Wapato boys.

Two state prizes were awarded to Wapato F. F. A. boys; these were first prize for farm mechanics which went to John Broyles and second prize for his knowledge of F. F. A. to John Mauch.

Probably the biggest achievement gained by the Wapato Chapter was the parliamentary procedure team. This team won all the district, sub-district, and local meets and went on to the state meet and came out in fourth place. The team members were John Mauch, Carmon Hardy, Jim Brown, Earl Rowley, Allen Strong, and Otis Holwegner. Jose Agbisit and Bob Hale served as alternates.

The last thing of the year was the spring stock show held in the Wapato Park. The show consisted of seventy head of swine, twenty head of beef, five head of sheep, and four head of dairy cattle.

Congratulations go to Mr. Hardy and Mr. Doornink for all the time they spent promoting F. F. A. ideas.

To begin an annual, each staff studies as many different yearbooks as possible. In this way variety is achieved in the arrangement of copy and pictures.

Soon after school started last fall, the editor, business manager, assistant editor, and adviser attended an annual conference at the University of Washington. Here they found many ideas which have proved helpful in the production of this year's Wasehian. Three members of the staff attended the student conference at Ellensburg.

This year the Board of Control allowed $1200 from the A. S. B. cards, which were sold at the first of the year, for the annual. This amount was supplemented by the sale of acknowledgments.

There is much more work to the annual than there seems. There are about sixty pictures in the annual. The photography class, under the able direction of Mr. Middleton, takes most of the pictures for the annual. They take many more pictures than the staff uses in order to get the best pictures possible.

The staff spends much of its time planning the dummy, making contacts with the engraver, printer, and photographer, making layouts for all pictures, writing the copy, and proofreading. In this way the yearbook becomes a student production.

The Wasehian staff hopes that you have enjoyed reading your annual and, in the years to come, that you will use it to help recall fond memories and recollections of your high school days.

With Best Wishes
